ADKT 0530

FILED

DEC 20 2017

ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY CHIEF DEPUTY

AMENDED ORDER ESTABLISHING COMMITTEE

This court has determined that a committee should be appointed to study matters related to child custody and make recommendations deemed appropriate to propose legislative reform of those matters. Accordingly, the Chief Justice shall appoint a committee to include the Honorable Lidia Stiglich, Supreme Court Justice, who shall serve as Chairperson, and shall also include five private attorneys selected by the Family Law Executive Council of the State Bar of Nevada, one legal services attorney selected by Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada, one legal services attorney selected by Washoe Legal Services, one district judge from Northern Nevada and one district judge from Southern Nevada. The Committee shall make its recommendations for legislative reform of child custody matters within 90 from the selection of the committee members.¹

¹This court's November 14, 2017, order establishing the committee to study child custody reform inadvertently called for an appointment of one attorney from Southern Nevada Legal Services instead of the Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada.

The individuals listed in Exhibit A are hereby appointed to serve on the Committee.

It is so ORDERED.
