LAPSE OF NV COURT INTERPRETER CREDENTIAL

A Nevada certified/registered interpreter who does not meet the renewal requirements before the expiration of the interpreter's certificate, but who still wishes to pursue recertification, has 6 months from the expiration date to complete the requirements, and upon completion may request recertification without having to retest (written and oral). During this period, the certification will be considered to have expired, and the interpreter will not be certified. If the interpreter is unable to complete the requirements within 6 months, but can show progress, he/she may take up to 1 year from the expiration date. If an interpreter must take extra time, the new certification period will extend only from expiration date of the preceding certification period.
