Clark County Nevada

January 5, 2025

This article aims to encourage Nevada Voters to attend the Nevada Judicial Commission interviews on Friday, January 24, 2025, at the Nevada Supreme Court 408 East Carson Avenue and voice their opposition or send a letter to the commission.

Six Applicants that would like to fill a vacancy in Family Court Department Y, Vacated by Judge Stephanie Charter:

They are as follows:

Paul M. Gaudet

Melvin Grimes

Jason Stoffel

Emily McFarling

Nicholas Petsas

Adriana White

According to the Nevada Constitution:

Under the Nevada Constitution, Article 6, Section 20, the Nevada Judicial Selection Commission must submit at least three nominees to the governor when a judicial vacancy arises. The governor then selects one of the nominees to fill the vacancy.

This process ensures that the governor has multiple qualified options while maintaining the integrity and impartiality of the judicial selection process. If fewer than three applicants are deemed qualified, the commission may request additional applications or take other measures to meet the requirement.

Jason Stoffel:

Jason P. Stoffel, 47, has attempted an appointment because he cannot win an election. He couldn't even beat Family Court Judge Vincent Ochoa even after giving Veterans In Politics information on Judge Ochoa's son's arrest for robbing a balloon store with a knife. His employee, Melvin Grimes, opposes him for the same appointment.

In 2017, Stoffel was named in a legal malpractice lawsuit by Russell Zitch. He alleged negligence and breach of fiduciary duty (see Russell Zitch to discuss the corruption of family court judicial candidate Jason Stoffel on VIP Talk <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IgJE9z5paVA&t=392s>).

In 2014, Stoffel lost against Judge Vincent Ochoa.

In 2020, Stoffel lost against Judge Nadin Cutter.

Stoffel has applied for an appointment numerous times.

Stoffel is a poor communicator.

Stoffel has no children and cannot relate to litigants.

Stoffel doesn't even recognize his wife, Family Court Attorney Amanda Roberts, in any of his campaigns, as if he was embarrassed by her.

Stoffel had a physical altercation against Judge Ochoa at a Family Law Conference.

One of the criteria for being appointed is winning your election, and Stoffel has proven that he cannot win.

Paul Gaudet:

Look who is trying to get reappointed after losing an election: Paul M. Gaudet, 59.

Gaudet is arrogant and doesn't deserve to sit on the family court bench. He lacks judicial temperament and knowledge of the law.

Let's take a look at his resume while being on the Bench:

Paul M. Gaudet was appointed to the Eighth Judicial District Court, Family Division, Department N, in March 2023 by Governor Joe Lombardo. [OBJ]

Paul M. Gaudet, a judge in Nevada's Eighth Judicial District Court, Family Division, has had several decisions overturned on appeal.

Notable cases include:

1. Termination of Parental Rights Case: In September 2024, the Nevada Supreme Court reversed Judge Gaudet's decision to terminate a father's parental rights. The court found that Gaudet misapplied Nevada statutes and disregarded substantial evidence, leading to an unjust termination. [OBJ]
2. Child Custody Case: In August 2024, the Nevada Court of Appeals overturned Judge

Gaudet's temporary custody orders. The appellate court cited his improper reliance on California law, which it deemed a manifest abuse of discretion. [OBJ]

It's worth noting that Kerri Maxey defeated him on November 5, 2024, during the special general election for the position of Department N. [OBJ]

One of the criteria for getting appointed is the ability to win an election. Gaudet has already embarrassed the Nevada Selection Commission and the Governor. He is ready for punishment as he tries to get appointed once again.

Melvin Grimes:

Melvin Grimes, 58, from Henderson, is a senior attorney at Roberts Stoffel Family Law Group.

Grimes, in opposition against his boss Jason Stoffel for the same seat.

Grimes has no loyalty to anyone.

Grimes took on a case, Loftus vs. Hall, where the mother, Vannesa Loftus, caused the death of her son Isreal; she was arrested and convicted and is a known felon. She also resides with another known felon, which is against the Nevada Revised Statutes not to engage with another known felon.

Well, Grimes took this case pro bono in support of the mother, who was convicted of negligent homicide. He took this case against the father, an Army veteran Burke Hall, simply because he was associated with Veterans In Politics.

Then, he tried to charge Hall $16,000 for legal expenses when he took the case pro bono, which means free legal service.

Grimes is a simple-minded individual who is motivated by revenge.

I am sorry for the constant email. This is my first time making a public statement, and I am a little nervous. In case I go over, here is the full speech:

Good morning Members of the Commission,

My name is Ryan Cervantez, and I am here to express my strong support for either Attorney Melvin Grimes or Judge Paul Gaudet for Family Court in Department Y. Both candidates have demonstrated exceptional dedication to public service and possess unique qualifications that make them ideal for this role.

Judge Paul Gaudet has showcased his dedication, integrity, and expertise in family law during his previous appointment to Department N. His commitment to justice and extensive experience make him a valuable asset to the Family Division. Judge Gaudet ensures that both parties are heard and treated with dignity, making him an excellent candidate for Family Court Judge.

Attorney Melvin Grimes has dedicated his life to public service, beginning with his brave service in the Navy. He then spent 22 years as a school teacher, where he interacted with youth daily, gaining a deep understanding of their needs and challenges. As someone who aspires to become a teacher before pursuing a career in law, I look up to Mr. Grimes because he has lived my timeline and serves as an inspiring role model. His commitment to public service and unique insights into the best interests of children make him an ideal candidate for Family Court Judge.

I wholeheartedly support the nomination of either Attorney Melvin Grimes or Judge Paul Gaudet and believe that both will serve our community with distinction.

Thank you for assisting me, and I look forward to seeing you and the commission tomorrow!

Commission on Judicial Selection
Supreme Court of Nevada
Suite 250

RE: Application of Melvin Grimes for Dept. Y vacancy Family Court

To the Commission:

I became aware of a vacancy in Dept. Y, Family Court, and that eight attorneys had applied for the position. One of those attorneys is Melvin Grimes.

There is important information that the Commission needs to know. About three years ago, Mr. Grimes was retained to represent Enrique Ivan Velasquez-Gonzalez in a divorce case brought by the former wife, Luba Gonzalez, aka Luba Snow. Case No. D-18-575860-D in the Family Court, Eighth Judicial District Court. The divorce case is sealed except for those matters, pleadings, orders and judgments, which can't be sealed.

A stipulated Decree of Divorce was filed on December 8, 2021. A provision in that Decree provided for the sale of the marital residence. It is stated at page 3 of the Marital Settlement Agreement which was merged into the decree. Exhibit 1.

Soon after the divorce was final, Luba filed a Chapter 7 petition in bankruptcy in Case No. 21-15676-nmc in Las Vegas. Exhibit 6. The filing of the bankruptcy petition triggers the automatic stay of all civil proceedings concerning the debtor. There are limited exceptions but none are involved in this matter.

Commission on Judicial Selection

Soon after that petition was filed, Mr. Grimes filed an emergency application in Family Court for a restraining order. The Honorable Mary Perry granted that order on December 16, 2021. Exhibit 2. That order allegedly enjoined Luba from filing a bankruptcy petition.

There is only big legal problem with that order. It was completely illegal. No state court has the authority to prohibit a person from filing a bankruptcy petition.

Since the divorce case is sealed, I did not have access to all of the case documents. On December 20, 2021, Judge Perry issued an Order to Show Cause why Luba should not be held in contempt. Exhibit 3

However, it must have related to the petition filing because at the show cause hearing on December 22, 2021, Judge Perry made certain gratuitous "findings" she said she would have made if there had been a trial in the divorce case. Exhibit 4. However, the case was voluntarily settled.

Judge Perry held another hearing on March 30, 2022 but in the absence of court filings, it is not certain what was still pending before the court.

In the bankruptcy case, Luba filed documents regarding the violations of the automatic stay done by Mr. Grimes, his law firm and his client. The proceedings resulted in a substantial monetary judgment against Mr. Grimes and the Roberts Stoeffel law firm, and Mr. Enrique Velazquez-Gonzalez. The damages awarded were in excess of $50,000.00. The law firm's carrier may have paid the judgment but that is not known to me as a fact.

There was more consequences. Luba Snow filed a complaint with the Commission on Judicial Discipline. Her care was one of two before that Commission and it was resolved by a public censure. Exhibit 7

Commission on Judicial Selection

Luba's prior attorney, Ben Childs, filed a State Bar complaint against Mr. Grimes. It resulted in a form of discipline. Exhibit 8.

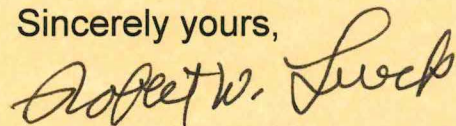

I would note that the claims against Mr. Grimes were the result of his litigation tactics in that case. I suspect that Mr. Grimes was a partner in the Roberts Stoeffel Law Firm and that he did these actions on his own initiative.

I mention this because Jason Stoeffel is also a candidate for this appointment. I have known him for many years and have worked with him on alternative conflict resolution methods and practices. I have no reason to believe that he had any involvement in what Mr. Grimes did in the divorce case. Nothing that Mr. Grimes did should be held against Mr. Stoeffel by this Commission.

What Mr. Grimes did was far below the acceptable standards of practice for family law and bankruptcy. I have been licensed to practice since 1976 and have handled many divorces and several bankruptcies in my career. The automatic stay is a very well known aspect of bankruptcy and I have never heard of a state court judge attempting to prohibit a litigant from filing a bankruptcy petition. No law permits that.

What the Commission does with this information is entirely within the Commission's discretion. The information provided is done as a public service. I have no personal axe to grind nor will it benefit me in any way.

Sincerely yours,

ORDER AWARDING DAMAGES REGARDING MOTION FOR CONTEMPT FOR VIOLATION OF THE AUTOMATIC STAY UNDER § 362(a) AND DAMAGES AGAINST CREDITOR, ENRIQUE IVAN VELAZQUEZ-GONZALEZ, HIS COUNSEL, MELVIN R. GRIMES, ESQ. AND LAW FIRM, ROBERTS STOFFEL, FAMILY LAW GROUP [ECF NO. 11]<sup>1</sup>

On September 26, 2022, the Court entered its findings of fact and conclusions of law (ECF No. 99) (“FFCL”) and related order (“Order”) (ECF No. 100) regarding Luba Snow’s (“Debtor”) Motion for Contempt for Violation of the Automatic Stay Under § 362(a) and Damages Against Creditor, Enrique Velazquez-Gonzalez, His Counsel, Melvin Grimes, Esq. and Law Firm, Roberts Stoffel Family Law Group (“Motion”) (ECF No. 11). The Order granted the Motion in part “solely as to liability” under Section<sup>2</sup> 362(k) and further stated, in pertinent part, the following:

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Debtor shall, no later than 14 days after entry of this order, file supplemental pleadings,

1 as appropriate, supporting her request for damages. Velazquez-
2 Gonzalez, Grimes, and the Roberts Stoffel Family Law Group may, 3 no later than 28 days after entry of this order, file their response(s), as appropriate. Thereafter, the Court will either take the matter under submission or schedule oral argument by separate order.

4 Order at 2:3-7. Accordingly, Debtor's supplemental pleadings were required to be filed by 5 October 10, 2022, while all responsive pleadings were required to be filed by October 24, 2022.
6 Melvin R. Grimes ("Grimes"), in his capacity as an attorney with the Roberts Stoffel Family Law
7 Group ("Firm") and as counsel for Enrique Velazquez-Gonzalez ("Velazquez-Gonzalez"), 8 received ECF notice of both the FFCL and the Order.

9 Debtor timely filed her supplemental pleadings on October 10, 2022, including her 10 Supplemental Brief on Damages ("Debtor-Brief"), the Declaration of Benjamin B. Childs, Esq.
11 ("Childs Declaration"), the Declaration of Christopher P. Burke, Esq. ("Burke Declaration"), and 12 the Declaration of Luba Snow ("Snow Declaration"). (ECF No. 101). Neither Grimes, the Firm, 13 nor Velazquez-Gonzalez filed a response to the Debtor-Brief by the October 24, 2022, deadline, 14 and the matter was thereafter deemed submitted.<sup>3</sup>

16 <sup>3</sup> During the preparation of this Order, the Court observed that on November 1, 2022, 17 Grimes, Velazquez-Gonzalez, and the Firm filed a Motion to Extend Time to File a Response to 18 Petitioner's Supplemental Brief on Damages ("Extension Motion") (ECF No. 102), to which 19 Debtor filed an opposition (ECF No. 103). The Extension Motion was not noticed for hearing as 20 required under Local Rule 9014, and no response to the Debtor-Brief was filed by the November 21 14, 2022, deadline requested in the Extension Motion. Thereafter, on January 12, 2023, Grimes 22 and the Firm filed a Supplemental Request Pursuant to Rule 9006(b) and Limited Response to 23 Debtors['] Supplemental Brief Regarding Damage[s] ("Supplemental Motion") (ECF No. 105), to 24 which Debtor filed another opposition (ECF No. 106) and a supplemental request for attorney's 25 fees (ECF Nos. 107, 109). Grimes subsequently filed a joinder to the Supplemental Motion on behalf of Velazquez-Gonzalez. (ECF No. 110). The Supplemental Motion also was not noticed for hearing as required under Local Rule 9014. Accordingly, neither the Extension Motion nor the Supplemental Motion—both of which were filed after the record was closed—have ever properly been before the Court. Debtor's supplemental request for attorney's fees and costs is also not properly before the Court. In sum, the record was closed at the conclusion of the October 24, 2022, responsive brief deadline, and the Court will not entertain any pleadings filed after that date.

26 For the avoidance of doubt, and in the alternative, even if the Extension Motion and 27 Supplemental Motion were noticed for a hearing, the Court would not find cause to grant the same.
28 Specifically, despite having received ECF notice of the FFCL and Contempt Order on September 26, 2022, the Extension Motion claims that Grimes, Velazquez-Gonzalez, and the Firm "were unaware ... that Findings of Facts and Conclusions of Law had been issued" and "became aware of the status of the case when Respondent's [sic] received Petitioners['] Supplemental Brief on or

1 Debtor, by the Contempt Motion, requests actual and punitive damages under Section
2 362(k)(1), which states, in pertinent part, that “an individual injured by any willful violation of a 3 stay provided by this section shall recover actual damages, including costs and attorneys’ fees,
4 and, in appropriate circumstances, may recover punitive damages.” As U.S. District Judge Gordon 5 recently concluded, “[a] fee award is mandatory if the bankruptcy court finds a stay violation was 6 willful, although the court ‘retain[s] the discretion to eliminate unnecessary or plainly excessive
7 fees.” Rushmore Loan Mgmt. Servs., LLC v. Moon (In re Moon), 2023 WL 1779643, at *5 (D.
8 Nev. Feb. 6, 2023) (citation omitted). “Additionally, there must be ‘a nexus between the claimed 9 damages and the violation of the stay’ because the individual must be ‘injured by the violation to 10 be eligible to claim actual damages.” Id. (citation omitted).

11 As for Debtor’s request for an award of attorney’s fees and costs, and other miscellaneous
12 actual costs, and based on the evidence presented, the Court finds and concludes that, Debtor

13 _____
14 about October 19, 2022.” Extension Motion at 2:8-12. No discussion is provided explaining the 15 discrepancy between the Court’s docket (which reflects ECF notice on Grimes on September 26, 16 2022) and the conclusory statements made in the Extension Motion. Additionally, even were the 17 Court to assume that respondents first received notice on October 19, 2022, they fail to provide 18 any explanation regarding why they waited almost two weeks later to file the Extension Motion 19 instead of filing the same prior to their October 24, 2022, deadline to file a responsive brief. The 20 Supplemental Motion’s additional claims of excusable neglect are rejected because under the facts
21 of this case, experienced counsel clearly made no effort to review the Court’s local rules regarding 22 the scheduling of hearings. See, e.g., U.S. v. Moyer, 2008 WL 3478063, at *7 (N.D. Cal. Aug.
23 12, 2008) (“Because Moyer [proceeding in pro se] made no effort whatsoever to familiarize
24 himself with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or the Civil Local Rules, he cannot claim 25 excusable neglect.”). The Court, utilizing its sound and reasonable discretion, reaches this 26 conclusion based on the facts of this case and cannot find any flexibility in the “elastic concept”
27 of excusable neglect to excuse (a) counsel’s lack of diligence in timely filing either a responsive 28 brief or a motion to extend by the October 24, 2022, deadline when Grimes concedes he learned of this deadline no later than October 19, 2022, (b) counsel’s apparent lack of effort to review the Court’s Local Rules regarding the scheduling of hearings, (c) counsel’s lack of filing a responsive brief by the November 14, 2022, deadline requested in the Extension Motion, (d) counsel’s failure, to the Court’s knowledge, to contact its chambers to inquire about the status of the Extension Motion, and (e) counsel’s filing of a Supplemental Motion 80 days after the October 24, 2022, deadline without, again, noticing it for hearing. See Pioneer Inv. Servs. Co. v. Brunswick Assocs.
Ltd. P’ship, 507 U.S. 380, 392 (1993) (“Although inadvertence, ignorance of the rules, or mistakes construing the rules do not usually constitute ‘excusable’ neglect, it is clear that ‘excusable neglect’ under Rule 6(b) is a somewhat ‘elastic concept’ and is not limited strictly to omissions caused by circumstances beyond the control of the movant.”).

1 incurred actual damages, and is entitled to an award of: (i) attorneys' fees and costs to Benjamin
2 B. Childs, Esq. in the aggregate amount of $11,769.97, as reflected in the uncontested Childs
3 Declaration, (ii) attorneys' fees and costs to Christopher P. Burke, Esq. in the aggregate amount 4 of $38,278.50, as reflected in the uncontested Burke Declaration, and (iii) actual costs of 5 $1,450.35, as reflected in the uncontested Snow Declaration. These actual damages are awarded 6 jointly and severally against Velazquez-Gonzalez, Grimes, and the Firm.

7 As for Debtor's emotional distress damages, Debtor requests an award of $95,000. As 8 previously summarized by this Court:

9 Proof of pecuniary loss is not required for an award of emotional 10 distress damages. See Dawson v. Washington Mutual Bank (In re 11 Dawson), 390 F.3d 1139, 1149 (9th Cir. 2004). "To recover 12 damages for emotional distress under § 362(k), 'an individual must 13 (1) suffer significant harm (2) clearly establish the significant harm, 14 and (3) demonstrate a causal connection between that significant 15 harm and the violation of the automatic stay (as distinct, for 16 instance, from the anxiety and pressures inherent in the 17 bankruptcy process).' ... Emotional harm may be proved by: (1)
18 medical evidence, (2) non-experts, such as family members, friends, 19 or coworkers; or (3) 'even without corroborative evidence where 20 significant emotion distress is readily apparent.' ... The last category 21 includes cases where the violator's conduct is 'egregious,' or where 22 the conduct is not egregious but the circumstances make it obvious 23 that a reasonable person would suffer significant emotional harm ...
24 'Fleeting or trivial anxiety or distress does not suffice ...'" See 25 America's Servicing Co. v. Schwartz-Tallard, 438 B.R. 313, 321-
26 22 (D. Nev. 2010), citing In re Dawson, 390 F.3d at 1149-50.

27 In re Martinez, 561 B.R. 132, 156-57 (Bankr. D. Nev. 2016) (emphasis added).

28 Debtor has satisfied the first two prongs – clearly establishing that Debtor suffered a significant harm. As the Court found and concluded in the FFCL, Grimes and Velazquez-Gonzalez sought Debtor's incarceration through the initiation of civil contempt proceedings in family court during the post-petition period because the filing of the bankruptcy case, and the imposition of the automatic stay, delayed the closing of a sale of Debtor's and Velazquez-Gonzalez's home in accordance with a family court settlement. See, e.g., FFCL at FoF ¶ 14
("During his March 4, 2022, testimony, Grimes testified that he would not have filed the requests

1 for an order to show cause if the bankruptcy filing had not stopped the sale of the Sunny
2 Property.”); id. at ¶ 15 (Velazquez-Gonzalez testifying, under penalty of perjury, that he requested
3 his counsel to file the contempt motions against Debtor seeking jail time in order to force her to 4 sell the house). The Court finds and concludes that these actions caused Debtor to suffer
5 significant emotional distress and that a reasonable person would suffer significant emotional 6 harm.

7 Debtor also has satisfied the final prong, i.e., “demonstrat[ing] a causal connection between 8 [the] significant harm and the violation of the automatic stay (as distinct, for instance, from the 9 anxiety and pressures inherent in the bankruptcy process.” See In re Martinez, 561 B.R. at 157.
10 To determine whether there is a causal connection between the harm suffered and the stay violation 11 in this case, it is necessary to determine the applicable period during which Debtor allegedly 12 suffered compensable damages. The applicable period began on December 17, 2021, when 13 Grimes and Velazquez-Gonzalez filed pleadings in the family court requesting incarceration, and 14 lasted until December 22, 2021, when District Judge Perry made clear that Debtor would not be 15 incarcerated. (ECF No. 60-7 at 3:20-4:7).

16 The Court cannot ignore, however, that the threat of incarceration occurred in the context 17 of what appears from the record to be a contentious family court proceeding which was already 18 highly stressful and emotionally taxing and could very well be the source of the Debtor’s suffered 19 harm. In fact, the days leading up to the filing of the bankruptcy and the days thereafter provide a 20 glimpse into the contentious nature of the case. On December 8, 2021, the family court entered a 21 Stipulated Decree of Divorce requiring the sale of the marital home. FFCL, FoF ¶¶ 1-2. Notably, 22 the Stipulated Decree did not include a deadline by which the marital home was to be sold—a fact 23 that makes the continuation of the stay violation to seek Debtor’s incarceration all that more 24 egregious. One week later on December 15, 2021, Debtor filed her voluntary chapter 7 petition, a 25 date that was one week prior to the proposed sale of the marital home. FFCL, FoF ¶ 3. This 26 resulted in a hearing before the family court on December 22, 2021, regarding, among other things, 27 the effect of the automatic stay on the sale of the marital home. At that hearing, Family District 28 Court Judge Mary Perry adamantly expressed her dissatisfaction with the pre-petition actions of

1 Debtor during the family court proceedings. (ECF No. 60-7 at 3:20-4:7). While Judge Perry's 2 comments are dicta and otherwise irrelevant, they do expose the family court's frustration with 3 Debtor—and thus expose an undoubtedly stressful and emotionally taxing case.

4       Additionally, while the Debtor attested to her stomach pain, anxiety and her trip to a 5 radiologist, she did not submit any medical records or medical receipts into evidence to assist in 6 quantifying Debtor's damages. See Snow Declaration, ¶¶ 17-19. Moreover, while Debtor's live-
7 in partner, Philip David Dace, testified at the March 4, 2022, hearing as to Debtor's emotional 8 distress, most (although not all) of Mr. Dace's pre-trial declaration filed in anticipation of his 9 testimony focused on activities that occurred in the family court during the pre-petition period.
10 See ECF No. 53 (Declaration of Philip David Dace), revealing the pre-existing emotional distress
11 that pre-dated Debtor's filing of this bankruptcy case.

12       Although the foregoing does indicate that there is a non-compensable aspect to Debtor's 13 emotional distress, the totality of the circumstances set forth in the record support the causal 14 connection between the emotional distress suffered and the stay violation. The Court cannot ignore 15 that the actions taken by Grimes and Velazquez-Gonzalez seeking to incarcerate Debtor were 16 extreme, if not egregious, and that a reasonable person would suffer emotional harm under similar 17 circumstances. Debtor's claim of $95,000 in emotional distress damages, however, is unwarranted 18 under the facts of this case and when compared to similar decisions addressing similar situations.
19 Debtor was under the threat of incarceration for five days (from December 17, 2021, through 20 December 22, 2021), but was not incarcerated. Debtor's five-day fear of being incarcerated is less 21 egregious than the four days of actual incarceration suffered under similar circumstances by the 22 debtor in In re Valentine, 611 B.R. 622, 652 (Bankr. E.D. Mo. 2020) that resulted in only a $400
23 emotional distress award ($100 for each night of incarceration). Such fear is also less egregious 24 than the debtor's emotional distress for missing his father's funeral caused by an actual 25 incarceration that violated the automatic stay, which resulted in a $4,400 emotional distress award
26 that was vacated by the appellate court in Young v. Repine (In re Young), 536 F.3d 512, 518 &
27 522 (5th Cir. 2008). In light of the foregoing, the Court awards Debtor an emotional distress
28 award of $1,000 ($200 for each of the five days Debtor was under fear of incarceration)—awarded

1 jointly and severally against Velazquez-Gonzalez, Grimes, and the Firm.

2 Finally, Debtor requests a punitive damages award of $50,000. As recently explained:

3 Punitive damages also may be awarded under Section 362(k)(1) for 4 a willful violation of the automatic stay “in appropriate 5 circumstances.” A reckless or callous disregard for the law or the 6 rights of others warrants an award of punitive damages under the 7 statute. See Goichman v. Bloom (In re Bloom), 875 F.2d 224, 228
8 (9th Cir. 1989); In re Stefani, 2019 WL 762661, at *8 (Bankr. S.D.
9 Cal. Feb. 15, 2019). An award of punitive damages typically bears 10 a relationship to the amount of compensatory damages awarded and 11 may take the form of a multiplier of the compensatory damage
12 award. See Philip Morris USA v. Williams, 549 U.S. 346, 353, 127
13 S.Ct. 1057, 166 L.Ed.2d 940 (2007). A punitive damages award
14 may not be based on perceived injuries to parties that are not before 15 the court. Id. at 353-54, 127 S.Ct. 1057. An award of punitive 16 damages should take into consideration (1) the degree of 17 reprehensibility of the defendant's conduct, (2) the disparity between 18 the harm suffered by the plaintiff and the amount of the punitive 19 damages award, and (3) the difference between the punitive damage
20 award and the civil penalties authorized or imposed in comparable 21 cases. See Arizona v. ASARCO LLC, 773 F.3d 1050, 1054 (9th Cir.
22 2014), citing State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co. v. Campbell, 538 U.S.
23 408, 123 S.Ct. 1513, 155 L.Ed.2d 585 (2003).

24 In re Moon, 613 B.R. 317, 358 (Bankr. D. Nev. 2020), aff'd in part, vacated in part, rev'd in part, 25 2021 WL 62629 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. Jan. 7, 2021).

26 District Judge Gordon recently addressed the reprehensibility prong, finding:

27 The reprehensibility of [a creditor's] conduct is the most important 28 guidepost. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co. v. Campbell, 538 U.S.
408, 419 (2003). To determine reprehensibility, courts consider whether:

the harm caused was physical as opposed to economic; the tortious conduct evinced an indifference to or a reckless disregard of the health or safety of others; the target of the conduct had financial vulnerability; the conduct involved repeated actions or was an isolated incident; and the harm was the result of intentional malice, trickery, or deceit, or mere accident.

Ramirez v. TransUnion LLC, 951 F.3d 1008, 1036 (9th Cir. 2020), rev'd and remanded on other grounds, 141 S. Ct. 2190 (2021).

Rushmore Loan Mgmt. Servs., LLC v. Moon (In re Moon), 2023 WL 1779643, at *11 (D. Nev.

1 Feb. 6, 2023). In this case, the action against Debtor was an isolated incident that lasted
2 approximately five days and resulted in emotional distress that was compounded by the pre-
3 existing anxiety Debtor suffered in an already stressful and distressing family court proceeding.

4 Regarding the disparity between the punitive damages award and the compensatory
5 damages award, District Judge Gordon found that a multiplier of 1.5 was appropriate to “serve[]
6 the twin goals of punishment and deterrence.” Id. at *12. Judge Gordon acknowledged that this 7 ratio “will result in an award that is substantially higher than ... comparable awards” but found 8 that “a higher award is warranted because [the creditor’s] stay violation was not a situation
9 involving a rogue employee, but the acts of representatives that [the creditor] touts as properly
10 trained.” Id. at *13 (citation omitted). Judge Gordon was clear, however, that “[t]here is no 11 bright-line rule” regarding the appropriate ratio of punitive damages to compensatory damages.
12 Id. at 11.

13 Adopting Judge Gordon’s guidance in calculating an award of punitive damages, this Court
14 considered comparable cases including In re Repine, 536 F.3d at 518 & 521 and In re Valentine, 15 611 B.R. at 654. Both cases involved family law disputes with more egregious facts than those in 16 this case where the Courts have awarded substantially less in punitive damages than those Debtors 17 requested. See In re Repine, 536 F.3d at 518 & 521 (affirming a punitive damages award of 18 $5,000); In re Valentine, 611 B.R. at 654 (assessing a punitive damages award of $1,000).

19 Here, Grimes’ actions resulting in a violation of the stay are more akin to the action of a 20 rogue employee as opposed to a representative trained by the Firm to violate the automatic stay in 21 the manner done in this case. Still, Grimes is bound by ethical rules that among other 22 responsibilities require competency. Without making a finding of a specific ethical violation, this 23 Court believes that Grimes overestimated his competency in bankruptcy law. While reprehensible, 24 Grimes’ actions do not rise to the type of reprehensible behavior that would support the amount 25 Debtor requests in punitive damages.

26 The same is true regarding the Firm. It, too, has ethical obligations to which it must adhere,
27 including an obligation to supervise the attorneys in its employ. Without making a finding of a 28 specific ethical violation, this Court believes that the Firm’s supervision of Grimes was lacking.

1 But such failures, while unfortunate, are not so reprehensible to support Debtor's full request for 2 punitive damages.

3 Consequently, and keeping in mind the twin goals of punishment and deterrence, the Court
4 awards $2,000 in punitive damages (a multiplier of two vis-a-vis only the emotional distress
5 award). Similarly to the court in In re Valentine, the Court's punitive damages award is assessed 6 only against Grimes and the Firm, and not Velasquez-Gonzalez. See, e.g., 611 at 653-54.

7 For these reasons,

8 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Motion for Contempt for Violation of the Automatic 9 Stay Under § 362(a) and Damages Against Creditor, Enrique Velazquez-Gonzalez, His Counsel, 10 Melvin R. Grimes, Esq. and Law Firm, Roberts Stoffel, Family Law Group ("Motion") (ECF No.
11 11) is GRANTED regarding damages. Specifically, Enrique Velazquez-Gonzalez, Melvin R.
12 Grimes, Esq., and the Roberts Stoffel Family Law Group shall be jointly and severally liable to 13 Debtor in the following amounts:

19

Case Nos.: 2022-062-P and 2023-039-P

Respondent.

22 STIPULATION AND ORDER OF CONSENT TO PUBLIC CENSURE

23 In order to resolve the above-referenced judicial conduct complaints pending before the 24 Nevada Commission on Judicial Discipline (the "Commission"), the Respondent, Honorable 25 Mary Perry, District Court Judge, Eighth Judicial District Court, Family Division, Clark County, 26 State of Nevada ("Respondent" or "Judge Perry"), and the Commission stipulate to the following 27 pursuant to Commission Procedural Rule 29:
28

1. Respondent and the Commission agree that Commission Case Nos. 2022-062-P and 2023-039-P shall be consolidated for purposes of resolution through this Stipulation and Order of Consent to Public Censure ("Stipulation and Order").

2. Respondent admits that she violated Canon 1 of the Revised Nevada Code of Judicial Conduct ("Code"), Rule 1.1, requiring the Respondent to comply with the law, including the Code; and Rule 1.2, requiring the Respondent to act at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the independence, integrity and impartiality of the judiciary and avoiding impropriety and the appearance of impropriety; Canon 2 of the Code, Rule 2.2, requiring the Respondent to uphold and apply the law, and perform all duties of judicial office fairly and impartially; Rule 2.3, requiring the Respondent to avoid bias; Rule 2.6(A), requiring the

1 Respondent to accord every person who has a legal interest in a proceeding, or that person's 2 lawyer, the right to be heard; Rule 2.8(A), requiring the Respondent to maintain order and 3 decorum in proceedings before the court; Rule 2.8(B), requiring the Respondent to be patient, 4 dignified, and courteous to litigants, jurors, witnesses, lawyers, court staff, court officials, and 5 others with whom the Respondent deals in an official capacity; and Rule 2.10, requiring the 6 Respondent to refrain from making any public statement that might reasonably be expected to 7 affect the outcome or impair the fairness of a matter pending or impending in any court, or make 8 any nonpublic statement that might substantially interfere with a fair trial or hearing; and Canon 9 3 of the Code, Rule 3.5, requiring the Respondent to refrain from intentionally disclosing or 10 using nonpublic information acquired in a judicial capacity, or either of these rules, in her 11 capacity as a District Court Judge in and for the Eighth Judicial District Court (Family Division), 12 in Clark County, State of Nevada, by knowingly or unknowingly engaging in an act, a 13 combination of acts, or all of the following acts, which occurred during the circumstances stated 14 below:

15 Case No. 2022-062-P

16 A. In this matter, the Respondent presided over a divorce proceeding in 17 Family Court. During an Order to Show Cause hearing on December 22, 2021, after the parties 18 settled the matter, the Respondent placed on the record how she would have ruled against the 19 Complainant in this matter (i.e., one of the litigants ("Litigant One")) had the matter proceeded 20 to trial.

21 B. Respondent made these statements to ensure that when the bankruptcy
22 court subsequently examined the property-related issues in Litigant One's divorce, that court 23 would have an appropriate factual record before it, "in case there is a question regarding the 24 property..." Respondent felt compelled to state her opinions out of concern that Litigant One 25 might attempt to "perpetrate a fraud" on a subsequent bankruptcy court as to property-related 26 issues, and characterized her obligation to do so as a "duty" to prevent a fraud from being 27 perpetrated on her, or any other, court. Despite Respondent's strong convictions on this issue, 28 Respondent did not (and in subsequent discussions, could not) articulate any legal basis for

1 taking the actions she did.

2 C. Respondent's statements placed on the record during that hearing were, in 3 fact, confidential as they were made as to Litigant One arising from a prior divorce proceeding
4 which had already settled and concluded. Respondent's actions led Litigant One to believe that 5 they were the result of a bias by Respondent against him.

6 D. During a March 30, 2022 hearing in the same matter, the Respondent
7 spoke in a hostile tone toward Litigant One. A review of the audiovisual recording of these 8 events ("JAVS Recording") reflects that the Respondent appeared visibly agitated and angry at 9 Litigant One during that proceeding. Respondent conceded that she "...probably was not 10 necessarily courteous..." to Litigant One. During this same hearing, the Respondent deprived 11 Litigant One of her right to be heard during that hearing, refused requests to allow testimony or 12 argument on her motion and awarded attorney fees against Litigant One.

13 Case No. 2023-039-P

14 E. In this matter, the Respondent presided over a divorce and child custody
15 proceeding, during which two (2) pertinent hearings were held on February 9, 2022 and August 16 11, 2022, respectively. What both of these hearings have in common is the Respondent's 17 needlessly disrespectful tone of voice, obvious changes in her mood, the use of profanity, 18 personally demeaning comments about the litigants, and generally, her overall demeanor and 19 lack of professional decorum toward all litigants appearing at those hearings.

20 F. In this matter, the Complainant ("Litigant Two") also alleged that the 21 Respondent deprived him and his counsel of the right to be heard, by not permitting oral 22 argument as to the Respondent's decision to set aside Litigant Two's decree of divorce, which 23 was granted by the Senior Judge that had handled the trial of the action.

24 G. The February 9, 2022 hearing was held via the "Blue Jeans" video 25 conferencing service. Litigant Two and his counsel were both present via the "Blue Jeans"
26 system.

27 H. A complete review of the JAVS Recording of the Respondent's February 28 9, 2022 calendar, Litigant Two reflects that the following statements from Respondent to 1 Litigant Two are present:

2 10:56:37 "Sir! Don't argue with me! I don't know what it is. Do we have a 3 full moon because I can't seem to get people to stop arguing with me today!" When, during the 4 Commission's subsequent investigation, the Respondent was asked if she would describe her
5 demeanor, as depicted in the clip, as being patient, dignified, and courteous? The Respondent
6 admitted that her conduct was improper and answered, "No".

7 10:58:30 "Sir! No! He doesn't get to pick and choose! We're going to set 8 aside the decree of divorce. We're going to redo this evidentiary hearing."

9 11:03:00 "Oh God, what is up with these people." ... "Sir! You haven't 10 respected this court for a year! So, I don't want to hear you talking about disrespect!" When,
11 during the Commission's subsequent investigation, the Respondent was asked if she had lost her 12 patience during that interaction, the Respondent admitted that her conduct was improper and 13 stated, "That is possible, yes." Respondent also admitted to raising her voice, though she added 14 "but not significantly...."

15 I. The August 11, 2022 hearing was also held via the "Blue Jeans" video 16 conferencing service. Litigant Two and his counsel were both present via the "Blue Jeans"
17 system.

18 J. A complete review of the JAVS Recording of the Respondent's August 19 11, 2022 calendar reflects that the following statements from Respondent to Litigant Two are 20 present:

21 2:28:30 - 2:31:35 In this video clip, Litigant Two made a comment about not 22 seeing an order related to paying the mortgage. Respondent then shouted, "BS! BS! Because I've 23 got the order right here in this computer." Respondent also slammed her hands on the bench and 24 yelled, "We're not here to argue!" Respondent continued shouting "Stop it!" Respondent also 25 made a comment, "This is not your home! This is my home! You will respect what I am 26 saying...You are not the boss here, do you understand." When during the Commission's 27 subsequent investigation, the Respondent was asked if she was in control of her temper and 28 emotions, the Respondent admitted that her conduct was improper and stated, "Probably not as

1 well as I could have been.”

2 2:59:25 During a back-and-forth conversation concerning Litigant Two’s 3 son, the Respondent stated, “...you don’t deserve to have primary! ... Don’t lie to me! BS! BS!

4 3:02:15 During continued discussion about the children, the Respondent
5 stated, “This is high conflict. Your children deserve a hell of a lot better than both of you. I’m 6 going to take her home with me! And neither one of you will see her. She deserves better than 7 what she’s getting...”

8 3:06:25 During a conversation about the mental and physical health of the 9 litigants, Respondent asked the Complainant, “Are you psycho? That’s a yes or no?”

10 3:08:10 During a discussion concerning the son of Litigant Two and the 11 other litigant in the matter, the Respondent stated, “I’m surprised he’s spending any time with 12 either one of you because neither one of you are worth it at this point.”

13 3:14:30 During the hearing, the other litigant in the matter mentioned she 14 had a bachelor’s degree in fine arts. The Respondent responded, “Why would you do that...you 15 can’t support your family with fine arts?” When during the Commission’s subsequent 16 investigation, the Respondent was asked if her comment could be considered as personally 17 insulting, the Respondent admitted that her conduct was improper and stated, “Could have been, 18 yes.”

19 3:32:50 Respondent commented, “My computer is slow right now. It’s mad 20 at me. It doesn’t like my fingers. I think it wants a man’s fingers. This must be a female or 21 something. Because it fights me constantly.”

22 3:58:15 While discussing custody of Litigant Two’s daughter, Respondent 23 stated, “I’m not giving you custody! No! Your ass needs to be out there working too.” When 24 during the Commission’s subsequent investigation, the Respondent was asked if this comment
25 was dignified, the Respondent admitted that her conduct was improper and responded “No.”

26 3. Respondent admits to all the allegations brought against her in paragraphs 2(A) 27 through (J) as set forth above and agrees the evidence available to the Commission would 28 establish by clear and convincing proof that she violated the Code, including Canon 1, Rules 1.1

1 and 1.2; Canon 2, Rules 2.2, 2.3, 2.6(A), 2.8(A) and (B), and 2.10; and Canon 3, Rule 3.5.

2 4. Respondent agrees to waive her right to present her case and contest the 3 allegations in the information set forth above in a formal hearing pursuant to Commission
4 Procedural Rule 18. Respondent also agrees that this Stipulation and Order takes effect
5 immediately, pursuant to Commission Procedural Rule 29. The Commission accepts
6 Respondent's waiver of said right and acknowledges and agrees to the immediate effect of this 7 Stipulation and Order.

8 5. Respondent and the Commission hereby stipulate to Respondent's consent to 9 public censure and other forms of discipline imposed in this Stipulation and Order pursuant to 10 Rule 29 and to the following substantive provisions:

11 A. Respondent shall receive a thirty (30)-day suspension from office without 12 pay. Imposition of said discipline is suspended for a period of one (1) year commencing with the 13 filing of this Stipulation and Order, while Respondent is placed on probation under the following 14 terms and conditions:

15 (i) Respondent shall have no further violations of the Revised Nevada 16 Code of Judicial Conduct while on probation. Violations shall be determined by a finding of the 17 Commission following an evidentiary hearing or stipulation thereto; and

18 (ii) Respondent shall comply with all the terms and conditions of this 19 Stipulation and Order.

20 B. Respondent agrees to complete, at Respondent's own expense, a 21 personalized judicial education course/remedial training with the National Judicial College on 22 the topic of judicial ethics and judging within six (6) months of the filing date of this Stipulation 23 and Order. This course/remedial training will be provided by the National Judicial College and 24 specifically customized and tailored to Respondent's misconduct, focusing primarily on: (1) 25 identifying and distinguishing between proper and improper court-related demeanor and 26 behavior; (2) identifying and rectifying areas of bias and prejudice in the courtroom in order to 27 maintain the integrity of the court for all participants; (3) performing judicial duties fairly and 28 impartially; (4) according to every person who has a legal interest in a proceeding, or that

1 person's lawyer, the right to be heard; (5) competence and preparedness in the performance of 2 judicial duties; and (6) the importance of upholding and complying with the law and the Code.
3 Respondent further agrees that the instructional topics and course delivery format (in-person or 4 online) shall be approved in advance by the Commission's Executive Director.

5 6. Respondent and the Commission hereby further stipulate that, through its 6 investigation of the allegations raised within Commission Case Nos. 2022-062 and 2023-039,
7 the Respondent presented evidence to indicate that her impatience and/or disrespectful
8 statements toward the litigants before her, could have been, in part, the result of (or influenced 9 by) her ingestion of certain medications for health conditions she is facing at the present time. It 10 is agreed that this evidence shall constitute a mitigating factor for purposes of imposition of 11 discipline in this matter and, along with Respondent's actions described above, merit the specific 12 discipline stipulated to herein.

13 7. Respondent and the Commission hereby further stipulate that this Stipulation and 14 Order does not include, resolve or administer discipline for any actions by the Respondent, the 15 facts of which are not referenced herein, but which may be pending before the Commission in 16 some investigative stage at this time, except for Case No. 2023-240, as discussed below.

17 8. In consideration of Respondent entering into this Stipulation and Order, 18 Respondent and the Commission further stipulate that the Commission will not pursue separate 19 public charges, or take any other action, against Respondent in Case No. 2023-240, which is 20 currently pending before the Commission and involves allegations against Respondent for (i)
21 inappropriate judicial demeanor, (ii) being unprepared for a hearing and making incorrect 22 statements of fact, (iii) making comments evincing bias; and (iv) pre-judging an issue and 23 attempting to make findings of bad faith without any evidence.

24 9. Respondent agrees and acknowledges that her behavior and actions in the cases 25 referenced in this Stipulation and Order, as well as in other previous complaints filed against 26 Respondent of which Respondent has been notified and made aware by the Commission
27 (involving similar violations of the Code as set forth in this Stipulation and Order), evidence 28 concerning and ongoing pattern of judicial misconduct for which corrective action must be taken

1 on Respondent's part.

2 10. Respondent further agrees and acknowledges that this Stipulation and Order will 3 be published on the Commission's website and filed with the Clerk of the Nevada Supreme 4 Court.

5 11. Respondent further agrees to waive (and the Commission agrees to accept 6 Respondent's waiver of) all of her rights pursuant to NRS 1.4673 and NRS 1.4677, including but 7 not limited to:

8 a. The right to proceed to hearing on the allegations against her (NRS 9 1.4673(1)).

10 b. The right to have any of the allegations against her proven by clear and 11 convincing evidence, with the burden of proof on special counsel (NRS 1.4673(2)(a)-(b)).

12 c. The right to receive written findings of fact and conclusions of law, 13 following a hearing, within sixty (60) days of said hearing (NRS 1.4673(3)).

14 d. The right to a determination as to whether discipline is appropriate in these 15 matters and what form that discipline should take (NRS 1.4677).

16
17 12. Respondent agrees the discipline of public censure and other forms of discipline 18 imposed in this Stipulation and Order are justified and authorized by Article 6, Section 21(1) of 19 the Nevada Constitution; NRS 1.4653; NRS 1.4677(1)(a), (c), (d)(1), (2), (5), and (f); NRS
20 1.4694; and Commission Procedural Rule 29.

21 13. Respondent stipulates to a public censure for violations of the Judicial Canons and 22 Rules as set forth above in paragraphs 2 (A) through (J).

23 14. Respondent understands and agrees that, by accepting the terms of this Order, she 24 waives her right to appeal to the Nevada Supreme Court, pursuant to Rule 3D of the Nevada 25 Rules of Appellate Procedure. Respondent also waives all other forms of extraordinary relief for 26 purposes of challenging this Stipulation and Order.
