(1A) Filing and Service. ~~Filing and Serving Request Form.~~ The parties have a duty to confer and attempt to reach an agreement concerning the transcripts necessary for the court's review on appeal.

(a) When a transcript is necessary for an appeal, appellant ~~shall~~must file the transcript or rough draft transcript request form with the district court and ~~shall~~must serve a copy of the request form upon the court reporter or recorder and the opposing party.

(b) Appellant ~~shall~~must file and serve the request form within 14 days of the date that the Supreme Court approves the settlement conference report indicating that the parties were unable to settle or, if the case was exempted or removed from the settlement program, within 14 days of the date that the case was exempted or removed from the settlement program.

(c) Appellant ~~shall~~must file with the clerk of the Supreme Court 12 file-stamped ~~copies~~ of the transcript or rough draft transcript request form and proof of service of the form upon the court reporter or recorder and the opposing party.

(2) Form. The transcript request form ~~shall~~must substantially comply with Form 3 or 11 in the Appendix of Forms unless the party filing the form is proceeding pro se, in which case the transcript request form ~~shall~~must substantially comply with Form 17 in the Appendix of Forms.

Formatted: Font: Bold

(3) Necessary Transcripts. Appellant must order transcripts of only those portions of the proceedings that appellant reasonably and in good faith believes are necessary to determine the appellate issues.

Formatted: Font: Bold

(4) No Transcripts. If no transcript is to be requested, appellant ~~shall~~ must file with the clerk of the Supreme Court and serve the opposing party with a certificate to that effect within the same period that the transcript request form must be filed and served under this subsection. Such a certificate ~~shall~~ must substantially comply with Form 14 in the Appendix of Forms.

with the fast track ~~statement~~opening brief, and respondent may prepare and file a separate appendix with the fast track ~~response~~answering brief.

(C) Form and Content. The ~~preparation~~form and contents of appendices ~~shall~~must comply with Rules 30 and 32 ~~and shall be paginated sequentially. Every assertion in the fast track statement or response regarding matters in an appendix shall cite to the specific page number that supports that assertion.~~

(D6) Pro Se Appellant; Appendix. A pro se appellant or cross-appellant ~~shall~~must not file an appendix. If the court's review of the record is necessary in such a case, the court may direct that the complete record be transmitted as provided in Rule 11(a)(2). Pro se parties are encouraged, but not required, to support assertions made in the fast track ~~statement~~opening brief or ~~response~~answering brief regarding matters in the record by citing to the specific page number in the record that supports the assertions.

Filing Fast Track Response. Within 21 days from the date a fast track statement is served, the respondent and cross-respondent shall file an original and 1 copy of a fast track response and serve 1 copy of the fast track response on the opposing party. The fast track response shall substantially comply with Form 13 in the Appendix of Forms. The fast track response shall not exceed 11 ~~20~~ pages in length or shall comply with the type volume limitations stated in Rule 3E(e)(2). The fast track response shall include additional authority and factual information necessary to rebut the contentions in the fast track statement. In cases involving a pro se appellant and/or cross appellant, Rule 46A(e) shall not apply and the respondent/cross-respondent shall file a fast track response as required by this Rule.

(3) Fast Track Reply Brief. The appellant may file and serve pursuant to Rule 25 a reply to the fast track ~~response~~ answering brief that shall be entitled “Reply to Fast Track Response.” within 14 days after the fast track answering brief is served. The reply shall must be no longer than 5 1 pages or shall comply with the type volume limitations stated in Rule 3E(c)(2). The reply must be limited to answering matters set forth in the fast track response. comply with Rule 32 and Rule 28(c), except that it need not include a table of contents or table of authorities. The reply must be filed within 14 days of service of the fast track response.

~~(4) Expanded Fast Track Statement, Response, or Reply.~~ A party may seek leave of the court to expand the length of the fast track statement, response, or reply. The requesting party must demonstrate that the complexity of the case and the issues presented warrant granting the request. A request for expansion must be filed at least 14 days before the fast track statement, response, or reply is otherwise due, and must specify the number of additional pages requested.

~~(5) Appendix.~~ The parties have a duty under Rule 30 to confer and attempt to reach an agreement concerning a possible joint appendix to be filed with the fast track statement. In the absence of an agreement respecting a joint appendix, appellant shall prepare and file a separate appendix with the fast track statement, and respondent may prepare and file a separate appendix with the fast track response. The preparation and contents of appendices shall comply with Rules 30 and 32 and shall be paginated sequentially. Every assertion in the fast track statement or response regarding matters in an appendix shall cite to the specific page number that supports that assertion.

~~(6) Pro Se Appellant; Appendix.~~ A pro se appellant or cross appellant shall not file an appendix. If the court’s review of the record is necessary in motion must justify the requested extension in light of the time limits provided in this Rule, and must specify the exact length of the extension requested. Extensions of time under this provision will be granted only upon demonstration of good cause. Sanctions may be imposed if a motion is brought without reasonable grounds.

~~(3) Subsequent Request for Extensions. Any subsequent request for an extension of time must be made by written motion to the court. The motion must justify the requested extension in light of the time limits provided in this Rule, and shall specify the exact length of the extension requested. Extensions of time for the filing of fast track statements, responses, and replies shall be granted only upon demonstration of extreme need or merit. Sanctions may be imposed if a subsequent motion for an extension of time is brought without reasonable grounds.~~

(h) Amendments to Briefs. Leave to amend fast track briefs will be granted only upon motion to the court. A motion to amend must justify the absence of the offered arguments in the party's initial brief. The motion will be granted only upon demonstration of good cause.

(i) Withdrawal of Appeal. If an appellant no longer desires to pursue an appeal after the notice of appeal is filed, counsel responsible for the appeal at that time must file with the clerk a notice of withdrawal of appeal. The notice of withdrawal of appeal must substantially comply with Form 8 in the Appendix of Forms.

(j) Appeal Disposition, Full Briefing, or Calendaring.

briefresponse, reply brief, and any other documents filed with the court, the court may resolve the matter or direct full briefing.

(2) A party may seek leave of the court to remove an appeal from the fast track program and direct full briefing.

The motion must demonstrate that the specific issues raised in the appeal are complex and/or too numerous for resolution in the fast track program or that the orders pertaining to child custody, guardianship of minors, parenting time, or visitation are not a primary issue on appeal. ~~If the moving party is represented by counsel, the movant must attach a written waiver from the client certifying that counsel has discussed the implications of full briefing and that the client waives expeditious resolution of the appeal.~~

(3) If the court orders an appeal to be fully briefed, the parties are not required to file transcript request forms pursuant to Rule 9(a) unless otherwise ordered. If a party's brief cites to a transcript not previously filed in the court, that party shallmust cause a supplemental transcript to be prepared and filed in the district court and the court under Rule 9 within the time specified for filing the brief in the court's briefing order. If a represented party's brief cites to documents not previously filed in the court, that party shallmust file and serve an appropriately documented supplemental appendix with the brief. In accordance with Rule 30, pro se parties shallmust not file an appendix, but when the court's review of the record is necessary in a pro se appeal, the court may direct that the complete record be transmitted as provided in Rule 11(a)(2).

(4) Subject to extensions, and if the court does not order full briefing, the court shallmust attempt to dispose of all fast track child custody appeals within 90 days of the date the case is transferred to the Court of Appeals, unless the disposition will consist of a published opinion. If a fast track child custody appeal is retained by the Supreme Court, the court must attempt to dispose of it within 90 days of the date the case is submitted for a decision., but the appeal will be given priority fast track response is filed.

(k) Court Reporter or Recorder Protection and Compensation.

When preparing and submitting rough draft transcripts under this Rule,

(1), Liability. Court reporters or recorders shall are not be subject to civil, criminal or administrative causes of action for inaccuracies in a rough draft transcript unless the court reporter or recorder willfully

(A) fails to take full and accurate stenographic notes of the proceeding for which the rough draft transcript is submitted, or willfully and improperly alters stenographic notes from the proceeding, or willfully transcribes audio- or videotapes inaccurately; and

(B) such willful conduct proximately causes injury or damage to a party asserting the action, and that party demonstrates that appellate relief was granted or denied based upon the court reporter's or recorder's inaccuracies.

(2), Compensation. Court reporters shall must be compensated as follows:

(A) For the preparation of a transcript or rough draft transcript, the court reporter shall must receive 100 percent of the rate established by NRS 3.370 for each transcript page and for costs. A party ordering transcripts or copies must pay the court reporter's fee. No reporter may be required to perform any service in a civil case until the fees have been paid to him or her, or deposited with the court clerk.

(B) In the event that a certified transcript is ordered after the rough draft transcript is prepared, the court reporter shall must receive an additional fee as established by NRS 3.370.
